

A. AB: Connecting ideas

1. Most methane emissions derive from humans and livestock animals.
2. The financial interests of companies are incompatible with the demands of environmentalists.
3. An increase in global temperatures leads to more extreme weather events, according to some scientists.
4. Germany's carbon emissions must be in line with¹ the Paris Agreement.
5. An environmentally friendly lifestyle contradicts travelling by plane.
6. The melting of ice caps follows the rise of global temperatures due to less reflected sunlight.
7. The disinterest of many politicians to solve the climate crisis reflects their inaction.
8. Many climate activists claim that eating meat daily is in disagreement of being environmentally conscious.
9. The popularity of student strikes clearly follows the climate inaction of politicians.
10. If the world's nations don't follow their CO₂ budgets, a rise in sea levels is expected.
11. The increase in livestock farming reflects the consumer habits of people.
12. The claims of scientists must derive from their data.

B. AB: Cartoons

The cartoon showcases the choice the reader has between saving the economic climate or the earth's climate, another detail is, that both choices are green meaning the dollar bills or trees and plantlife. It resembles a voting sheet that has the reader choose their future.

¹or adhere with